

The Wesley Zaidan User Agreement

I. Purpose of Rental

The Wesley Zaidan was founded to promote women's rights, youth development of international understanding and global leadership, as well as to contribute to local communities including humanitarian assistance. The Wesley Foundation offers its facilities at reasonable prices for activities that serve the public interest.

II. Rental Procedure

- ① First time renters must complete the registration form before reserving a room. After registration, you will receive a "Wesley Registration Number" by e-mail if you are qualified to use a meeting room. You will need to input this number in the reservation form each time you make a reservation.
- ② Rooms may be reserved up to 90 days in advance. Rooms must be reserved for a minimum of two hours, and after that with one hour increments. After making a reservation, you will receive a confirmation and a billing statement by email.
- ③ Please be sure to pay in full by the due date.
NOTE: If payment is not received by the due date that Wesley Foundation has given, the reservation will automatically be cancelled.
- ④ Preparation and clean up time must be included in the rental time, and please vacate the room by the due time.

III. Rental Rates and Cancellation Policy

At the time of reservation, depending on the purpose of use, you will be designated Category I or Category II. Your rate will be calculated accordingly.

Category I (general public)

- ♦ Anyone who does not fall into Category II

Category II (NPO/NGO affiliated)

- ♦ Groups with mission efforts similar to the Wesley Zaidan (women's empowerment, youth leadership and humanitarian aid) that are conducting activities relating to those mission efforts.
- ♦ Groups and NPO's that have received public certification from the government and whose activities and purpose of room usage are for public benefit and fulfill these two criteria.
 - A. Business which are concerned with public benefit service, academic field, practical art, charity or other public interest according to Appendix. (Act on Accreditation of Public Interest Incorporated Associations and Public Interest Incorporated Foundations fourth clause of Article 2)
