CONNECTING THE CHURCH IN MISSION

ANSWER GOD'S CALL TO CHANGE THE WORLD THROUGH MISSION SERVICE!

Work alongside your partner community to address critical issues such as HIV and AIDS, poverty, hygiene and migrants' rights. Develop new skills, learn from local experts and channel your passion to help build just communities.

GLOBAL MISSION FELLOWS

LONG-TERM MISSION, AGES 20-30

Janjay Innis works toward social justice at the Tacoma Community House in Washington state.

During two years of service, you will experience community living while engaging in justice work and becoming an ambassador for mission domestically and internationally. Join the movement of young adults dedicated to mission and systemic change.

- ENGAGE with local communities
- CONNECT the church in mission
- GROW in personal and social holiness

INDIVIDUAL VOLUNTEERS

FLEXIBLE MISSION SERVICE, AGES 18 AND UP

Diamond Pate is engaged in housing ministries with the Hinton Rural Life Center in North Carolina.

Bring meaning to your vacation, semester abroad, or gap year. Put your faith into action while living in community with those whom you serve. Individuals and couples have the opportunity to volunteer for a period of two months to two years at placement sites around the world or locally.
